To a man of athletics, friend of faculty, leader of students. . young energetic. . . practical and efficient. . . firm and unrelenting. . . respected coach. . . who feels a sense of responsibility for us. . . who considers our problems his own. . .

To you, Lee DeTurk, we dedicate the 1967 Viking; for in your home, on the basketball court and in the classroom, you have shown us responsibility and respect for ourselves and our school.

To every thing there is a season and a time to every purpose under the heaven:

A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which has been planted;

A time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;

A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;

A time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing;

A time to get and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;

A time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war;
and a time of peace.

Tacos, Pinata's Enliven Club

The Spanish Club is a small, informal group connected with the High School Spanish Class. Miss Maria Toledo, the Spanish teacher, is the sponsor.

Club Teaches Art Of Homemaking

Rekamemoh members are cooking, burning, learning, making attempts, and experiencing failure. Today they are daughters, tomorrow they will be wives and mothers.

People make houses, and homemakers make homes. The strength of our country lies in the character of the people making homes from houses.

F. T. A.'s student teaching is observing and trying your hand in many teaching situations, always under the sympathetic guidance of qualified teachers.

F. T. A. is getting ready for college so that you may be successful as a student and as a leader in the institution of your choice.

Competitive Spirit Necessary

OFFICERS: C. Van Lear, P. Grabner, S. Hartman, E. Orrick.

Sports is usually the basic concern of aspiring, perspiring males, but the competitive spirit is also maintained by the fairer sex at M. H. S.

These active girls demonstrate interest, vitality, sportsmanship, and physical fitness. They strive, build, learn and achieve as athletes and young ladies.

Pepsters Boost Team

Stirring hopes anew and raising cheers mightily, 125 noisy students cooperating and vibrant, spurred the team on to victory.

The Pep Club sponsored the Annual Cheed Leader Feet Beeter Dance at which time the basketball team was honored and the Sophomores were named the 1967 Yell Champions.

Dance Band Organizes

Under the direction of Mr. Joe Huffman, a dance band was formed in the fall of 1966. Due to busy schedules and conflicting activities, it was unable to perform during the 1966-67 school year, but there are great hopes for next year.

Left to right: P. Wolff, C. Hamilton, R. Whittern, S. Harless, L. Lee, K. Sipe, M. Harless, J. Neadstine, S. Grabner, J. Lee, C. Van Lear, D. Farnsworth, C. Fuelling.

MAJORETTES: P. Lee, D. Kemp, J. Wolff, P. Orrick, S. Hamilton, L. Kryder, J. Lee, P. Wolff, C. Brown.

Band: Beethoven To Ringo

"Cheer up, Mary, it's Friday."

If things look and sound differently around the band room, it is probably because they are. Mr. Huffman has worked on building a new attitude, resulting in an alive, successful and growing band.

The band was very active this year performing at basketball games, M. H. S. concerts, and combined concerts with Hoagland High School's band. Joined with Hoagland High School's band, the Monroeville High School band participated in their first concert contest.

A Smiling Face — A Heart Full Of Song

Room 26 is one of the few places in school where a student will never get reprimanded for raising the sound level of the room above a low murmur. Of course, the sounds that echo from the Monroeville High School vocal music department can hardly be considered noise. They indicate the presence of the high school choir, directed by the exuberant Mr. James Mergenthal.

The do re mi's are a welcome relaxation after a day of examinations and themes, but there is also hard practices for many school events at which these singers perform.

OFFICERS: P. Grabner, Secretary; C. Van Lear, Student Director; S. Cagnet, Vice-President; R. Rosswurm, Treasurer; C. Fuelling, President.

"Their group had 25% fewer cavities!"

Membership in high school choir is open to all students in grades 9-12. The only requirements are that, first and foremost, a student must possess the sincere desire to sing, and he must attend all rehearsals and concerts.

One of the highest aims of this choir, in addition to developing musicianship, is to develop and achieve "group harmony". Through the choral literature that is sung and through each choir member's involvement with this literature, "group harmony" is sought.

The choir provides a means by which members can study and grow through all types of choral literature. The choir presented several concerts during the school year. They started the year with a field trip to the Ft. Wayne State Hospital where a performance was given for the patients.

SEXTET: C. Fuelling, R. Rosswurm, P. Grabner, C. Van-Lear, D. Carpenter, B. Berry.

The ensuing performance schedule for the choir consisted of a joint Thanksgiving concert with the Hoagland choir, a Christmas program and convocation, a spring joint concert with the Hoagland choir, a performance at district choir contest, and ended the year with an annual spring concert.

LIBRARIANS

If you're doing research on the genetics of fruit flies or a term paper on the succession of English kings, the first place you would probably go is the check out desk of the school library. The librarian is to aid the students in finding source material needed for research papers. He also maintains the records and helps to clarify the mysteries of the card catalogue.

Stan Whittern expresses his point of view.

The Speech Class takes part in many activities. In October several students went to the speech contest at New Haven. Those entering in poetry were: B. Beucler, B. Fredericks, M. Gibson, J. Scholarship,

Service

Scholarship
Superior Mentality abounds.
Leadership
As guiding light to the final goal.
Character
As strong, honest, and sincere.
Service
As willing to endure for good to all.

These qualities are sought in the members of the National Honor Society.

Truly honored and well of luck are those named to this select group. The new members are to meet the high standards of Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service. They are worthy indeed. This year NHS members further justified their selection by using the Society to perform services for their school and community instead of resting on their laurels.

The Thrill Of Basketball

COACH: Lee DeTurk

From the beginning of October to early February, the walls of Monroeville's gym vibrated with the bouncing of basketballs and the shrill blast of Coach DeTurk's whistle. This was the basketball season.

Lack of experience brought seemingly endless frustrations to the Cubs. The story was much the same night after wintry night. Jump off to a good start, hold a slim lead at half, lose the lead in the second half, then come back strongly only to lose by a few points in the end.

With an overall won-loss record of 6-14, the Cub men looked back on a year that was plagued by hard breaks and lack of experience and look to 1968 with a somewhat determined, hopeful gaze.

The Spirit Of '67

Academics

If you have . . .
wrinkled your nose at the smell of
a chem lab,
finally gotten 120 words a minute in
shorthand,
conjugated an irregular verb.

If you have . . .
written a paper the night before it's due,
spent part of the next period finishing a Geometry test,
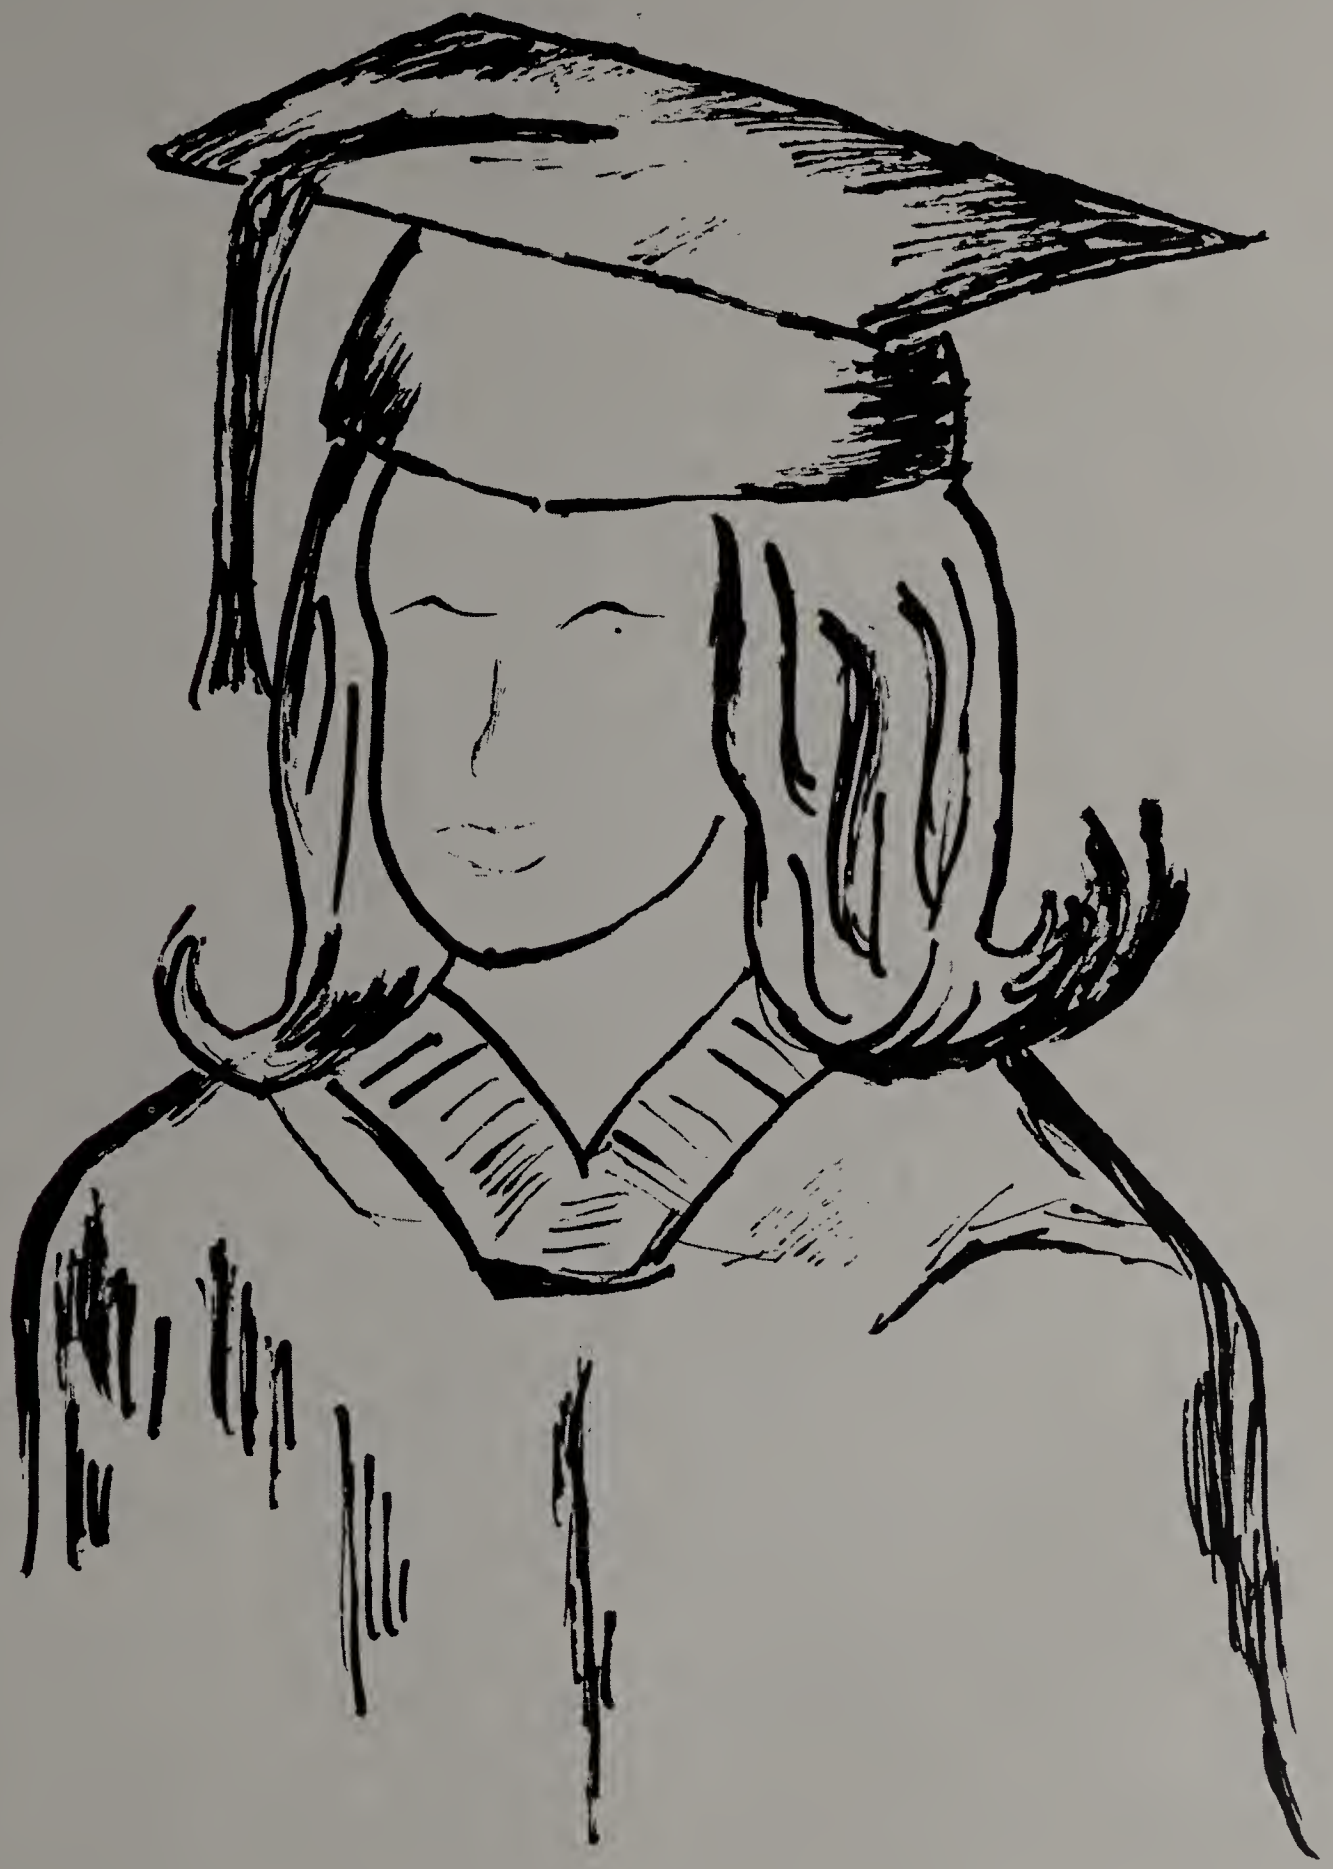
felt the panic of a pop quiz,
you know the challenge of . . .



Jane Reed

In Memoriam

We pay tribute to the memory of one who had endeared herself to her associates, and by her accomplishments and the example of her life, bestowed a rich heritage upon those who knew her.

"Goodness and mercy endureth forever," so it is that Jane can never really die. Her life was an open book filled with acts of kindness and generosity. So we are strengthened in our belief that her life has not been in vain; that the high principals that actuated her shall henceforth have an uplifting influence upon all who knew her, so that the good which she did may endure forever.

"Let us not mourn her going;
Let us rejoice to know:
That earthly labors finished
She was prepared to go."

"Let us emulate her virtues;
That men of us may say;
The world is brighter, better,
Because she passed this way."

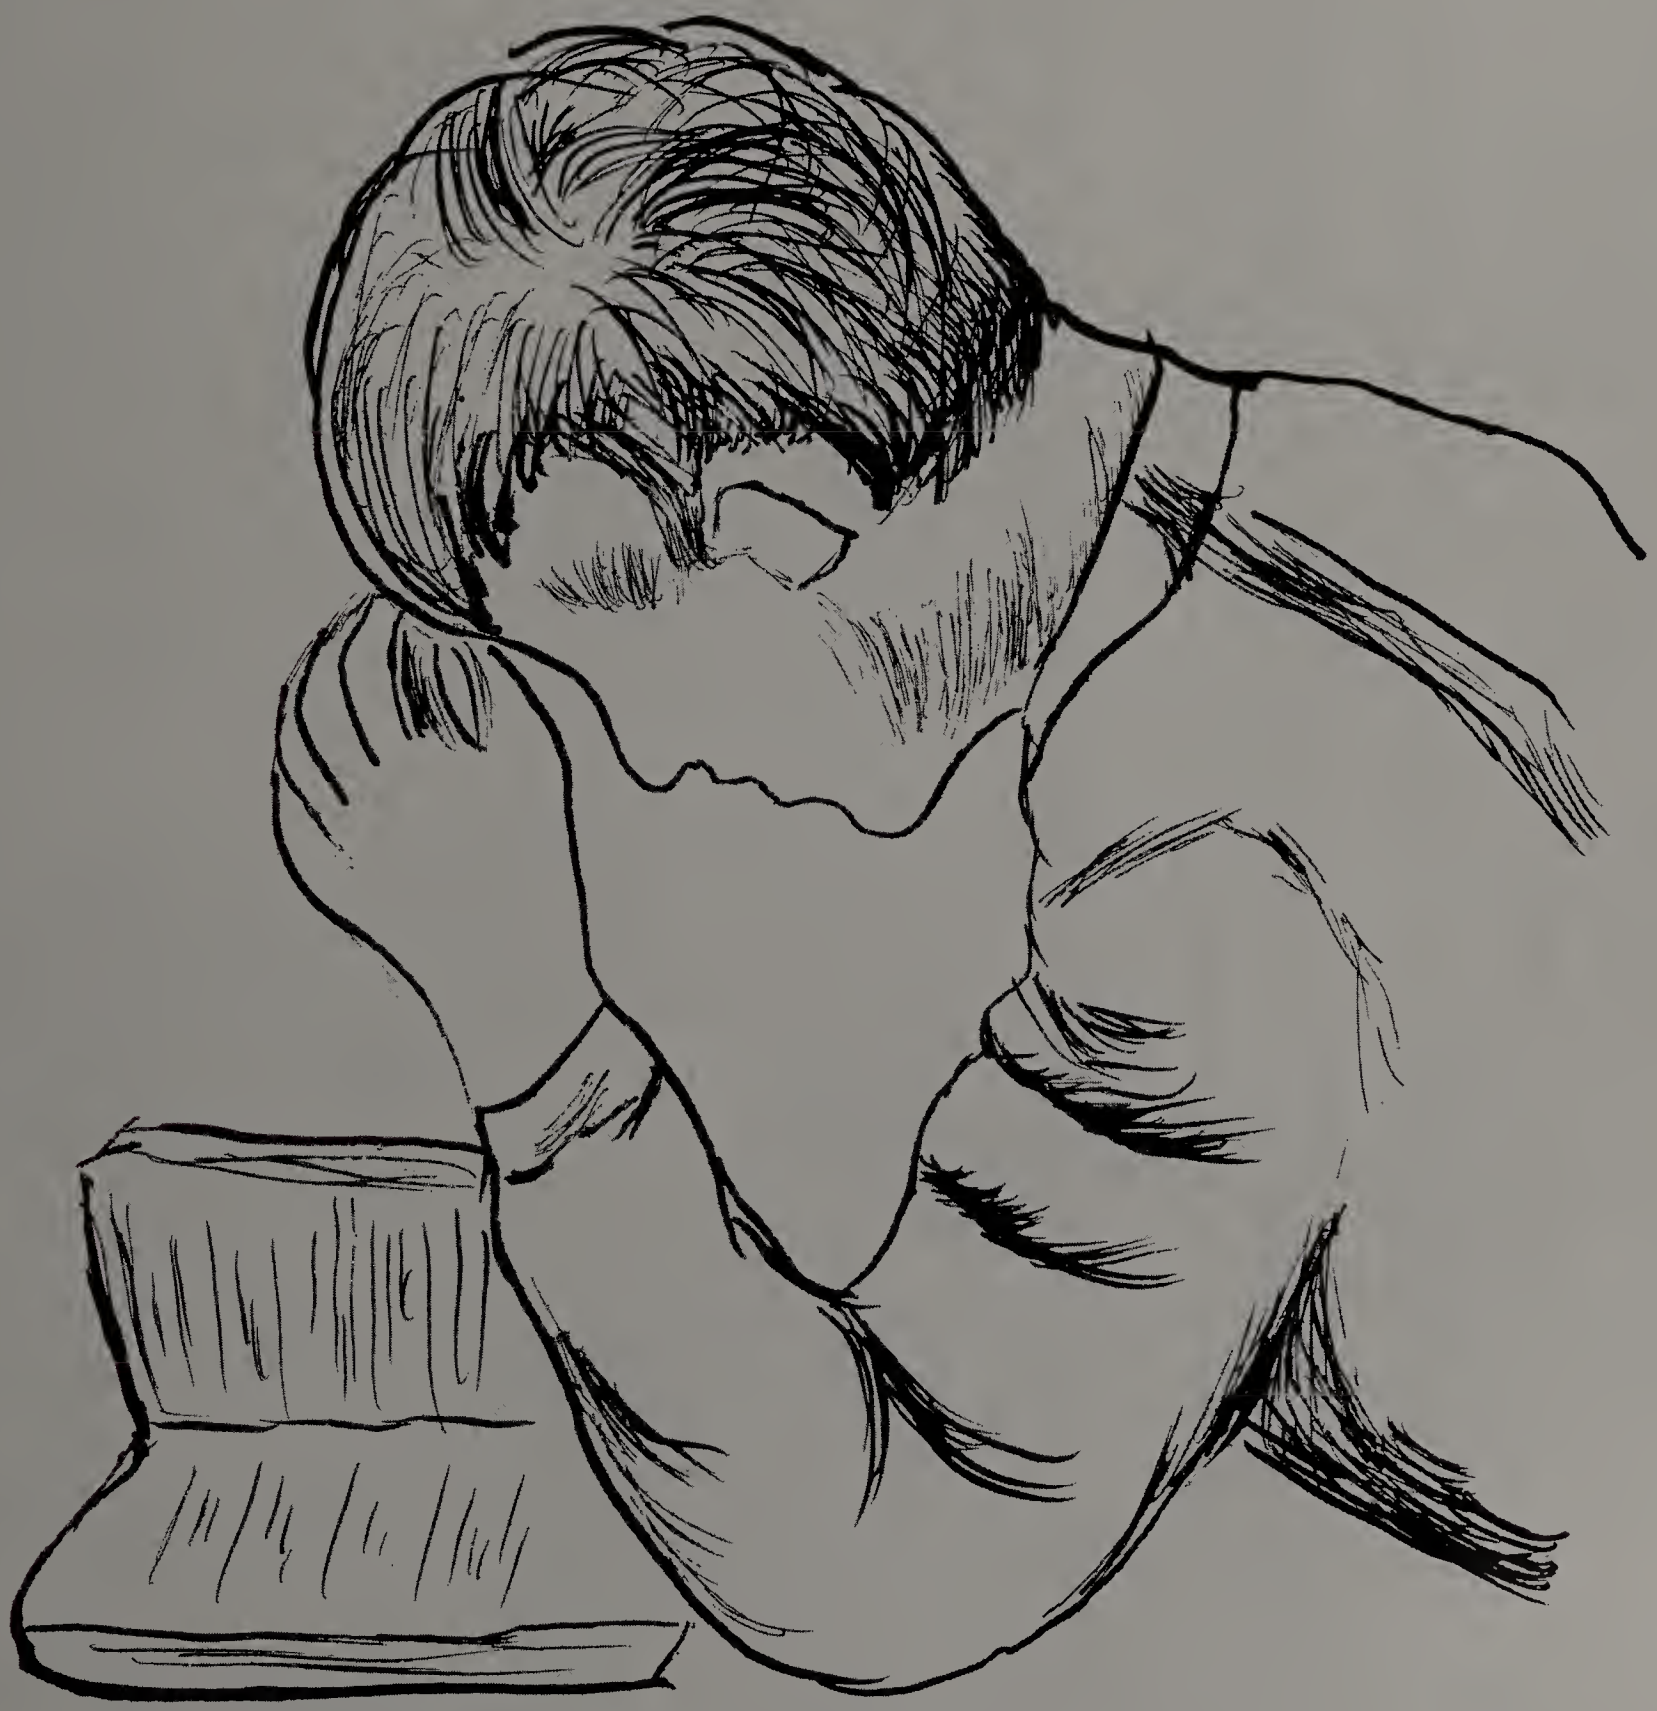
People

If you have . . .
tried to place that face,
anticipated a telephone call,
groaned at a bad joke.

If you have . . .
loitered in the hall with friends,
played cards in the assembly at noon,
gathered around the candy store at a ball game,
you know the companionship of . . .

PEOPLE



The Seniors are with us, but not for long. How fast the year has flown! When they were Freshmen they thought this year, this "seniority", would never come. It has come, not with a rush and a bang, but slowly as they gained more poise, more self-assurance and more respect for themselves and others. It didn't come in the happy mood of the Back-to-School Dance, or at the first basketball game of the year.

No, it was a subtle change, a gradual accumulation of honors, of responsibility, of confidence in themselves and others. They started preparing for "senior citizenship" three years before they entered their last year. They worked as individuals, as well as a class. They are still working as individuals. They will continue to work as they leave Monroeville and go on to bigger things. Next year they will begin again at the bottom, but not the very bottom, thanks to their experiences at M. H. S.

In Last Year At M.H.S.

In Memoriam

As I sit at my desk thinking back over a lifetime of classroom teaching, a relatively small but very select group comes to my mind. I can see each of them almost as plainly as in the days when they were seated at their desks in the room.

No one thing, but rather a combination of excellent traits, made them so remarkable.

Jim Hart is one of this group.

Being a good student with good grades is one of the essentials of each member of this group. Jim was a good student but he did have trouble with one subject, I believe he said it was spelling. His answers to many questions were remarkable, showing a keen analytical mind you would scarcely expect from an eighth grade boy. He applied himself well, getting his work done on time.

Personality is another attribute possessed by the boys and girls in this group. Jim had that. He was always pleasant and smiling and never complained even though we knew his trouble. He was well behaved and showed that he had had very good home training.

He was a real American Boy, full of fun and laughter. He liked to play the games the other boys played and he had a very good sense of humor. He delighted in teasing me or pulling some trick on me that I was not expecting. I enjoyed these as much as he did and would do the same to him which he in turn enjoyed. One could not help loving this boy and respecting him.

I tried to make life as pleasant for him in school as I could. I like to think that I succeeded in this as I knew the burden he was carrying. I am grateful for having him in my classes for a year as by his very exceptional manner and behavior I am certain it made me a more understanding and tolerable person.

While Jim has departed from our midst we all shall long remember him for the wonderful boy that he was.

In Appreciation

Members of the 1967 VIKING Staff wish to express their sincere appreciation to you, Mrs. Overmyer. Your cooperation and perseverance have proven invaluable to the Staff.

As a teacher and as advisor to the Annual Staff, you have demonstrated a breadth of knowledge and a great depth of understanding. Your warm and friendly manner, punctuated with witticisms, commands our respect and admiration and serves as a powerful stimulus for us to strive for success.

Mrs. Mary Overmeyer

Farewell, Monroeville High School

At the time we were told that our class was to put out a yearbook there was some speculation about the idea. But, somewhat voluntarily, the staff was chosen. We started out with high hopes and "it will be the greatest," attitude, until we realized that our first deadline was less than a week away. Well, with a little bit of acceleration on our part, we managed to get out our first 50 pages on time. By the time the second deadline came around, the few remaining faithful workers were panic stricken. And, our last deadline, well, you can't imagine. We were ready to throw the whole thing out the window and walk away. But, as you can plainly see, we didn't.

With this publication we have endeavored to record, as accurately as possible, the events which have characterized Monroeville High School in 1967. To those of you who read this now, and later, we hope that this year's VIKING recreates the feelings and events for you as they truly happened. Each Senior now goes his way. We part, perhaps never to converse again. Thus, when you suddenly yearn for the glorious days of high school, let the 1967 VIKING be the supplement to your memory to relive those pleasant, precious moments. It has been a privilege to have been co-editors of this book. And, we hope it has recorded and revived innumerable memories for you. If it has, then we have achieved our purpose.

Co-editors,

Susann Grabner and Pat Grabner
